			PART I. COMMITTEE JOURNALS, 1838-39
1	1		JOURNAL OF THE JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE LATE DIFFICULTIES WITH THE MORMONS. 30 NOV 1838 – 17 DEC 1838 – 1 folder: Arranged chronologically by date of meeting, the proceedings include committee organization, list of members, order of business, drafts of the committee report, and a list of documents prepared to assist the committee in its deliberations.
1	1		JOURNAL OF THE JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO REPORT A BILL TO PROVIDE FOR THE LATE DISTURBANCES IN THIS STATE. 14 JAN 1839. 1 item: The sole entry for this committee, the proceedings relate to the election of a subcommittee to prepare a draft bill.
1	1		PART II. A CALENDAR OF THE LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS, EVIDENCE, ORDERS AND CORRESPONDENCE RELATING TO THE MORMON DISTURBANCES, 1838-1841: The documents enumerated in this calendar follow the arrangement of the pamphlet published in 1841. Each surviving original has been assigned a consecutive item number for indexing purposes. With the exception of the legislative proceeding, the following data is given for each document: date, writer, recipient, place written, a brief summary of the contents and page reference to printed version. In all cases the documents listed are copies of the originals as prepared by the Secretary of State for publication. The arrangement of the documents falls roughly into four main categories: legislative proceedings, correspondence and orders, evidence and certificates. The resultant chronology shows the gradual development of events culmination with the publication of the evidence in 1841. Published documents for which no original exists are briefly noted in sequence and identified by the use of brackets.
