ORDER OF RULEMAKING

By the authority vested in the Conservation Commission under sections 40 and 45 of Art. IV, Mo. Const., the commission adopts a rule as follows:

3 CSR 10-5.575 Nonresident Landowner Firearms Deer Hunting Permit is adopted.

A notice of proposed rulemaking containing the text of the proposed rule was published in the Missouri Register on September 1, 2000 (25 MoReg 2203). No changes have been made in the text of the proposed rule, so it is not reprinted here. This proposed rule becomes effective March 1, 2001.

SUMMARY OF COMMENTS: Daniel Musholt, Quincy, IL, submitted a comment regarding fiscal impact to the State of Missouri. He feels any negative fiscal impact resulting from reduced permit fees for non-resident landowners would be offset by an increased number of permit buyers; therefore fiscal impact would be negligible.

RESPONSE: The Department of Conservation carefully reviewed the comments received. While an increase in revenue could result from increased hunter participation, it is an unknown. Figures were based on the average of the number of non-resident deer and turkey permits purchased in past years. The Department finds that there is no cause for a change in the rule.

Title 4—DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT
Division 240—Public Service Commission
Chapter 32—Telecommunications Service

ORDER OF RULEMAKING

By the authority vested in the Missouri Public Service Commission under sections 386.040, RSMo 1994 and 386.250(6), RSMo Supp. 1999, the commission rescinds a rule as follows:

4 CSR 240-32.110 Surety Bonding Requirements for Basic Local Telecommunications Companies is rescinded.

A notice of proposed rulemaking containing the proposed rescission was published in the Missouri Register on August 1, 2000 (25 MoReg 1957). No changes were made in the proposed rescission, so it is not reprinted here. This proposed rescission becomes effective thirty days after publication in the Code of State Regulations.

SUMMARY OF COMMENTS: This rescission was proposed in conjunction with a proposed replacement rule. Most of the comments received were directed to the proposed replacement rule. The Staff of the Public Service Commission filed comments indicating that the existing rule provides that the required surety bond be made payable to the Missouri Public Service Commission and that the Commission lacks the statutory authority to disburse the bond's proceeds to the intended recipients. Brydon, Swearngen & England, P.C. and Southwestern Bell Telephone Company filed comments about the proposed replacement rule. Neither comment addressed the proposed rescission. A public hearing was held on September 6, 2000. The Commission concludes that the existing rule is unworkable because of the Commission's inability to disburse the bond's proceeds to the intended recipients. Therefore, the surety bonding requirement for basic local telecommunications companies should be rescinded.

Division 240—Public Service Commission
Chapter 32—Telecommunications Service

ORDER OF RULEMAKING

By the authority vested in the Missouri Public Service Commission under sections 386.040, RSMo 1994 and 386.250(6), RSMo Supp. 1999, the commission withdraws a rule as follows:

4 CSR 240-32.110 Surety Instrument Requirements for Basic Local Telecommunications Companies is withdrawn.

A notice of proposed rulemaking containing the text of the proposed rule was published in the Missouri Register on August 1, 2000 (25 MoReg 1957-1960). This proposed rule is withdrawn.

SUMMARY OF COMMENTS: The commission received written comments regarding the proposed rule from the Staff of the Public Service Commission, Brydon, Swearingen & England, P.C., and Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. A public hearing was held on September 6, 2000.

The proposed rule would require the appointment of a corporate trustee to handle disbursement of the proceeds of the bond to eligible claimants. The comments of the Staff of the Public Service Commission indicate that Staff contacted numerous Missouri banks to determine if they would be willing to serve as corporate trustee under the terms of the proposed rule. The banks that responded indicated that they had serious reservations about serving in that capacity because of concerns about the obligation of the corporate trustee to sort out valid from invalid claims. In response to those concerns Staff suggested extensive changes to the proposed rule to simplify the duties of the corporate trustee. Brydon, Swearingen & England, P.C., a Jefferson City law firm, filed comments on its own behalf, expressing concern that compliance with the proposed rule would be extremely difficult and expensive because of the anticipated difficulty of finding a corporate trustee willing to serve under the surety instrument required by the rule. Those difficulties could create a barrier to entry that would discourage competition in the local telephone service market. Southwestern Bell Telephone Company filed comments generally supporting the proposed rule but suggesting extensive changes in the wording of the rule.

Based on the comments received, the Commission concludes that the rule it has proposed will be unworkable and could create an unreasonable barrier to the entry of new competitors into the local telephone service market. Therefore, the proposed rule is withdrawn.

ORDER OF RULEMAKING

By the authority vested in the director of the Department of Insurance under sections 374.045, RSMo Supp. 1999 and 376.676, RSMo Supp. 2000 (S.C.S.H.B. 1739, 90th Gen. Assembly, 2d R. Sess. 2000), the director adopts a rule as follows:

20 CSR 200-1.160 is adopted.

A notice of proposed rulemaking containing the text of the proposed rule was published in the Missouri Register on July 17, 2000 (25 MoReg 1871-1895). Those sections with changes are reprinted here. This proposed rule becomes effective January 1, 2001.

SUMMARY OF COMMENTS: A hearing was held on September 5, 2000, at 10:00 a.m., in accordance with notice given at 25 MoReg 1871-1895. All comments received during the public comment period were considered. Comments favored the promulgation of the proposed rule but with suggestions for two minor changes. No one testified or offered comments opposing the proposed rule. Substantial evidence was received at the hearing that the rule was necessary for the proper governance of the value of life insurance policies.

COMMENT: (This comment was received prior to the comment period and prior to the publication of the Proposed Rule.) The adoption of the model regulation will reduce the availability of fully guaranteed term insurance premiums, because the fully guaranteed term insurance will be priced out of the marketplace. Companies will instead market term policies with a non-level premium using a level-plan illustration and unsuspecting consumers will find their premiums increased after the passage of an initial guaranteed period. Insurance departments should ban term policies that do not have guaranteed premiums.

RESPONSE: The comment suggests that the director not require fiscally sound reserving criteria for guaranteed premium life policies unless he bans non-guaranteed premium policies altogether. Assuming the director had the authority to ban non-guaranteed premium policies, such a step is not necessary. At its core, the comment concerns marketing of non-guaranteed policies. The proposed rule is not directed to marketing, but rather to ensuring that the benefits of certain types of insurance policies will be available as promised. The director has already adopted advertising regulations forbidding deception concerning policy premiums. Policies are typically less expensive where the company has the right to raise premiums, and this feature may be important to many consumers. It is difficult to see the logic in removing non-guaranteed products from the marketplace merely because the proposed rule regulates reserving practices concerning other products. The department rejects the comment.

COMMENT: American Council of Life Insurers (ACLI) supports the adoption of the regulation with two suggested changes. First, the cite in paragraph (2)(C)1, to wit: "Minimum Reserves calculated pursuant to section 376.380.1(2)(i)," is incorrect and should be changed to "section 376.380.1(2)(h)." Second, the effective date of the regulation should be changed to either January 1, 2000 or January 1, 2001.

RESPONSE AND EXPLANATION OF CHANGE: The department agrees the citation is incorrect and changes it as suggested. The department agrees that a change in the effective date is warranted, but questions its authority to adopt a retroactive effective date. While the January 1, 2001, date is acceptable to the department, the process of promulgating a regulation is not entirely within the control of the department. Because of the possibility that the process could take longer than anticipated, the department will change the proposed rule to take effect thirty days after the publication of the proposed rule in the Code of State Regulations or January 1, 2001, whichever later occurs. The Proposed Rule cannot become effective prior to the passage of thirty days after its publication in the Code.

2. Basic reserves.

(7) Effective Date. This rule shall become effective thirty (30) days after publication in the Code of State Regulations or on January 1, 2001, whichever later occurs.
