Chapter 95—Pull Tab Game*12 CSR 40-95.010 Pull Tab Game

PURPOSE: The purpose of this rule is to define the Pull Tab as a game for the Missouri Lottery.

(1) The following rule shall define the game Pull Tab as a game for the Missouri Lottery:

(A) Pull Tab tickets are lottery tickets that are played by opening tabs to reveal if a prize was won. Each pull tab shall have three (3), four (4) or five (5) tabs under which play symbols will appear. A winning ticket will be determined by matching, aligning, adding or locating symbols or numbers under the tabs, or as specifically described on the ticket or in an individual game rule;

(B) Pull Tab tickets shall not be sold for more than one dollar ($1);

(C) The prize structure for each Pull Tab game shall be displayed in the immediate vicinity of the pull tab dispensing device and those prizes shall be in full view of any person prior to that person purchasing the opportunity to play;

(D) Players must redeem a winning Pull Tab ticket the same day as it was purchased and must redeem all winning Pull Tab tickets at the retailer at which the ticket was purchased;

(E) A licensed lottery retailer may sell pull tabs at the discretion of the executive director; and

(F) Compensation for the sale of Pull Tab tickets shall be paid by the lottery in the form of an eight percent (8%) discount from the retail price of tickets in each carton. The executive director may institute an incentive program.
