(C) When service is by publication, within forty-five (45) days of the first publication of notice.

(4) The filing of a responsive pleading, other than an answer, that requests the commission to take some action shall increase the time in which the respondent shall file an answer, as set by section (3) of this rule, as follows, unless the commission orders otherwise. In any case, the time allowed for filing an answer shall be no less than the time that remained when the responsive pleading was filed.

(A) If the commission denies the request, the respondent shall file the answer no later than ten (10) days after the commission so orders;

If the parties settle all of the case, petitioner shall file a notice of dismissal as described in section (2) of this rule.

(2) Notice of Dismissal. Petitioner may voluntarily dismiss the complaint as set forth in this section. Petitioner shall effect a voluntary dismissal by filing a notice of dismissal. The notice of dismissal shall state that petitioner dismisses the complaint.

2. After the filing of a motion for decision without hearing under section (3) of this rule or the introduction of evidence at the hearing, whichever is earlier, only with leave of the commission or with written consent of the adverse party. The commission shall grant leave freely when justice so requires.

(3) Summary Determination and Other Decisions Without Hearing.

(A) Generally.

1. A decision without hearing includes consent orders, involuntary dismissals, and summary determinations. A party may file a motion for a decision without a hearing on all or any part of the complaint.

2. Timing.

A. In any case, other than those set forth in subparagraph B. of this paragraph, a motion for decision without hearing shall be filed no less than forty-five (45) days before the hearing.

B. In any case in which any legal authority other than the commission sets any maximum time for conducting a hearing on the merits of the complaint, no party shall file a motion for decision without hearing without leave of the commission.

3. If a motion for a decision without a hearing relies on matters other than the pleadings and stipulations, the commission may treat it as a motion for summary determination.

(B) Specific Motions.

A. Cases not under section 621.045, RSMo. A consent order is the commission's memorialization that the parties have agreed to dispose of the case without the commission's decision.

(Party) admits that such conduct is cause for (the relief sought) under the following legal authority:

(Legal Authority).

Therefore, the parties agree to (the relief sought).

The commission may deny any motion for a consent order that does not contain the facts necessary to support the relief sought under the cited legal authority.

The commission may grant a motion for summary determination in favor of any party, including a party who did not file the motion.

A. The commission may grant a motion for summary determination if any party establishes facts that entitle any party to a favorable decision on all or any part of the complaint, and no party raises a genuine issue as to such facts.

B. A party may establish a fact, or raise a genuine issue as to any fact, by stipulation, pleading of the adverse party, discovery response of the adverse party, affidavit, or other evidence admissible under the law.

C. Except in response to a motion that relies solely on the pleadings, a party shall not rely solely on its own pleading to establish a fact, or to raise a genuine issue as to any fact.
