20 CSR 200-1.010 Financial Condition of Insurance Companies

PURPOSE: This rule enumerates conditions which may indicate that an insurer is in a financial condition which would require further scrutiny in order to protect its policyholders, claimants, creditors, shareholders and the public.

(1) Definitions.

(A) Financial ratios shall include, but not be limited to, premium-to-surplus ratios, change in writings ratios, change in surplus ratios and any other financial ratios employed by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) in the Insurance Regulatory Information System and other financial ratios employed by the director of the Department of Insurance.

(B) Insurer shall mean any company or business entity authorized to transact or applying for authority to transact the business of insurance in Missouri under Chapter 376, 377, 378, 379, 381 or 384, RSMo.

(C) Premium shall mean—i) for a property and casualty insurer, net written premium which is direct premium plus premium written on reinsurance assumed less premium written on ceded reinsurance and ii) for a life and health insurer, premiums and annuity consideration which is total direct premiums and annuity consideration plus reinsurance assumed premiums and annuity consideration less reinsurance ceded premiums and annuity consideration.

(D) Surplus shall mean an insurer's admitted assets less its liabilities.

(2) An insurer may require additional scrutiny when one (1) or more of the following conditions are found to exist by the director of the Department of Insurance:

(A) An insurer does not file a financial statement within ten (10) days of the receipt of notice from the department of its failure to file as required by the applicable statute;

(B) An insurer files financial information which is false or misleading;

(C) An insurer overstates its surplus by a material amount;

(D) A material number of an insurer's financial ratios are outside the acceptable ranges as established by the NAIC and the director of the Department of Insurance;

(E) Without consideration of net income and the changes in paid-in capital, paid-in surplus or contributed surplus and policyholder dividends, the net reduction to the insurer's surplus is a material amount of beginning surplus on the insurer's financial statements;

(F) An insurer's reserves for losses and loss adjustment expenses are discounted a material amount of surplus, except reserves for long-term lines with fixed and determinable payments, such as long-term disability and Workers' Compensation, may be discounted on the basis of tabular reserves as permitted by the director of the Department of Insurance;

(G) An insurer has reinsurance reserve recoverables or receivables which are disputed by the reinsurer or are due and payable and remain unpaid for a period of ninety (90) days and the reinsurance reserve credits, recoverables and receivables are a material amount of an insurer's surplus;

(H) An insurer has reinsurance reserve credits, recoverables or receivables due from insurance companies in receivership and the reinsurance reserve credits, recoverables or receivables are a material amount of an insurer's surplus;

(I) An insurer's affiliate or subsidiary is unable to pay its obligations to the insurer as they become due and the obligations constitute a material portion of the insurer's surplus;

(J) An insurer's premium writings are excessive in relation to the insurer's surplus;

(K) An insurer fails to maintain books and records sufficient to permit examiners to determine the financial condition of the insurer;

(L) An insurer has reinsurance agreements affecting a material portion of its gross written premium and the assuming insurers are unauthorized under section 375.246, RSMo;

(M) An insurer has taken reinsurance credits or claimed assets on which there are no executed reinsurance agreements or other satisfactory evidence of cover and which are a material amount of surplus. This condition shall not apply to reinsurance transactions where individual underwriters must bind that coverage. In those circumstances, a binder of coverage shall constitute execution;

(N) One (1) agent or agency produces a material amount of the gross written premiums of an insurer;

(O) An insurer does not follow a policy on rating and underwriting standards determined to be appropriate to the risk;

(P) An insurer's aggregate net retained risk, direct or assumed, under any one (1) policy or certificate of insurance, is in excess of ten percent (10%) or an appropriate amount of surplus;

(Q) The insurer's asset portfolio when viewed in light of current economic conditions is not of sufficient value, liquidity or diversity to assure the insurer's ability to meet its outstanding obligations as they mature;

(R) Any controlling person, as defined in Chapter 382, RSMo, of an insurer is delinquent in the transmitting to, or payment of, net premiums to that insurer;

(S) The management of an insurer, including officers, directors, or any other person who, directly or indirectly, controls the operation of that insurer, fails to possess and demonstrate the competence, fitness and reputation deemed necessary to serve the insurer in that position;

(T) The insurer has grown so rapidly and to an extent that it lacks adequate financial and administrative capacity to meet its obligations in a timely manner;

(U) The company has experienced, or will experience in the foreseeable future, cash flow, liquidity problems, or both; or

(V) Any other conditions deemed appropriate by the director.

(3) The conditions enumerated in this rule do not conclusively establish an insurer's financial condition. In evaluating any of these conditions, all circumstances surrounding the insurer's operations shall be analyzed in making an ultimate conclusion.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this rule to the contrary, the maximum net amount of risk to be retained by a property or liability insurer, or both, for an individual risk shall be no larger than ten percent (10%) of that insurer's surplus. Any insurer retaining a net amount of risk for an individual risk larger than ten percent (10%) of that insurer's surplus shall be deemed in hazardous condition.

(5) Remedial Action.

(A) The existence of a material number of these conditions or a significant deficiency in one (1) or more conditions enumerated in this rule may result in further remedial action including, but not limited to, denying admission into this state, removing a company from the approved surplus lines list, suspending or revoking an insurer's certificate of authority to transact the business of insurance in this state and, in the case of foreign insurers, consulting with the insurer's domestic state.

(B) In the event that the remedial action pursued is suspension or revocation of an insurer's certificate of authority, no suspension or revocation shall be ordered until the proper notice and hearing procedures have been afforded the company as required by statute and 20 CSR 800-1.100.

(C) Upon an evaluation of the conditions set forth in this rule, the department has the authority to require additional surplus, based upon the type, volume and nature of insurance business transacted. Any requirement of additional capital and surplus under this subsection shall be accomplished under section 375.1162, RSMo or pursuant to a conservatorship action or administrative supervision.

20 CSR 200-1.039 Supplemental Filing Requirements for Material Transactions

PURPOSE: This rule aids in the interpretation of sections 354.105, 354.190, 354.435, 354.465, 354.717, 354.720, 374.190, 375.041, 375.400, 376.350, 377.100, 377.380, 378.626, 379.105, 381.241, 383.030 and 384.021, RSMo, and requires domestic insurance companies to disclose material transactions as addenda to the annual and quarterly financial statement filings in order to protect policyholders, claimants, creditors, shareholders and the public.

(1) “Insurer domiciled in this state”, “domestic insurer”, and “insurer” shall have the same definition as provided in section 375.012, RSMo.

(2) Every insurer domiciled in this state shall file a report with the director disclosing material acquisitions and dispositions of assets or material nonrenewals, cancellations or revisions of ceded reinsurance agreements unless the acquisitions and dispositions of assets or material nonrenewals, cancellations or revisions of ceded reinsurance agreements have been submitted to the director for review, approval or information purposes pursuant to other provisions of the insurance laws or regulations of this state.

(A) The report required in section (2) of this rule is due within fifteen (15) days after the end of the calendar month in which any of the foregoing transactions occur. However, the director may grant an extension of an additional thirty (30) days in which to file the report.

(B) One complete copy of the report, including any exhibits or other attachments, in addition to being filed with the director, shall also be filed with the National Association of Insurance Commissioners.

(C) All reports obtained by or disclosed to the director pursuant to this rule, shall be given confidential treatment and shall not be subject to subpoena and shall not be made public by the director, the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, or any other person, except to insurance departments of other states, without the prior written consent of the reporting insurer. However, if the director, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard to the reporting insurer determines that the interest of the insurer’s policyholders or shareholders or the public will be served by publication of the report, the director may publish all or any part of the report in any manner the director may deem appropriate.

(3) No acquisitions or dispositions of assets need be reported pursuant to section (2) of this rule if the acquisitions or dispositions are not material. For purposes of this rule, a material acquisition (or the aggregate of any series of related acquisitions during any thirty (30)-day period) or disposition (or the aggregate of any series of related dispositions during any thirty (30)-day period) is one that is non-recurring and not in the ordinary course of business and involves more than five percent (5%) of the reporting insurer’s total admitted assets as reported in its most recent statutory statement filed with the department.

(A) Asset acquisitions subject to this rule include every purchase, lease, exchange, merger, consolidation, succession or other acquisition other than the construction or development of real property by or for the reporting insurer or the acquisition of materials for such purpose.

(B) Asset dispositions subject to this rule include every sale, lease, exchange, merger, consolidation, mortgage, hypothecation, assignment (whether for the benefit of creditors or otherwise), abandonment, destruction or other disposition.

(4) The following information is required to be disclosed in any report of a material acquisition or disposition of assets:

- (A) Date of the transaction;
- (B) Manner of acquisition or disposition;
- (C) Description of the assets involved;
- (D) Nature and amount of the consideration given or received;
- (E) Purpose of, or reason for, the transaction;
- (F) Manner by which the amount of consideration was determined;
- (G) Gain or loss recognized or realized as a result of the transaction; and
- (H) Name(s) of the person(s) from whom the assets were acquired or to whom they were disposed.

(5) Domestic insurers are required to report material acquisitions and dispositions on a non-consolidated basis unless the insurer is part of a consolidated group of insurers which utilizes a pooling arrangement or one hundred percent (100%) reinsurance agreement that affects the solvency and integrity of the insurer’s reserves and the insurer ceded substantially all of its direct and assumed business to the pool. An insurer is deemed to have ceded substantially all of its direct and assumed business to a pool if the insurer has less than $1,000,000 total direct plus assumed written premiums during a calendar year that are not subject to a pooling arrangement and the net income of the business not subject to the pooling arrangement represents less than five percent (5%) of the insurer’s capital and surplus.

(6) No nonrenewals, cancellations or revisions of ceded reinsurance agreements need be reported pursuant to section (2) of this rule if the nonrenewals, cancellations or revisions are not material. For purposes of this rule, a material nonrenewal, cancellation or revision is one that affects:

- 2. More than fifty percent (50%) of the insurer’s total ceded indemnity and loss adjustment reserves.

(B) For life, annuity, and accident and health business: more than fifty percent (50%) of the total reserve credit taken for business ceded, on an annualized basis, as indicated in the insurer’s most recent annual statement.

(C) For either property and casualty or life, annuity, and accident and health business, either of the following events shall constitute a material revision which must be reported:

- 1. An authorized reinsurer representing more than ten percent (10%) of a total cession is replaced by one (1) or more unauthorized reinsurers; or
- 2. Previously established collateral requirements have been reduced or waived respecting one (1) or more unauthorized reinsurers representing collectively more than ten percent (10%) of a total cession.

(D) However, no filing shall be required if—

- 1. For property and casualty business, including accident and health business written by a property and casualty insurer: the insurer’s total ceded written premium represents, on an annualized basis, less than ten percent (10%) of its total written premium for direct and assumed business; or
- 2. For life, annuity, and accident and health business: the total reserve credit taken for business ceded represents, on an annualized basis, less than ten percent (10%) of the statutory reserve requirement prior to any cession.

(E) The following information is required to be disclosed in any report of a material nonrenewal, cancellation or revision of ceded reinsurance agreements:

- 1. Effective date of the nonrenewal, cancellation or revision;

2. The description of the transaction with an identification of the transaction's initiator;

3. Purpose of, or reason for, the transaction; and

4. If applicable, the identity of the replacement reinsurer.

(F) Insurers are required to report all material nonrenewals, cancellations or revisions of ceded reinsurance agreements on a non-consolidated basis unless—

1. The insurer is part of a consolidated group of insurers which utilizes a pooling arrangement or one hundred percent (100%) reinsurance agreements that affects the solvency and integrity of the insurer's reserves; and

2. The insurer ceded substantially all of its direct and assumed business to the pool. (7) This rule shall apply to any transaction entered into after the effective date of this rule.

(1) Every life insurance company authorized to do business in this state is required to file an annual statement. Missouri instructions for completing the life and accident and health annual statement blank require that these forms be signed and certified by a qualified actuary.

(2) For this purpose, a qualified actuary shall be deemed to be either subsection (2)(A) or (B) as follows:

(A) A member in good standing of the American Academy of Actuaries; or

(B) A person who has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the director of insurance that s/he has had an educational background appropriate for the practice of actuarial science and that s/he has had extensive professional actuarial experience. To satisfy this requirement of extensive actuarial experience, a person must have had substantial actuarial responsibilities with respect to his/her employment extending over a period of time at least equal to seven (7) years of the most recent ten (10) years.

(3) Scope. This rule shall apply to all reports, statements and other documents filed with the director or issued to the public in relation to the business of insurance.

(4) Restriction of Signing as an Actuary. No report, statement or document shall be filed with the director or issued to the public in relation to the business of insurance if it is signed by a person who represents him/herself in the instrument to be an actuary unless the person signing as an actuary is a qualified actuary.

(5) Actuarial Representation. No person in any representation made to the public or to the director in respect to any matter subject to this rule shall use the word actuary or actuarial to indicate a degree of professional competence unless the representation was prepared or approved by a qualified actuary.

(6) Annual Statements of Domestic Life Insurance Companies. Section 376.380, RSMo prescribes the general form of the annual statement which must be filed with the director each year. The form which is required by the director is that which has been developed by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners. This form now includes a requirement relating to policy reserves and other actuarial items. The instructions for completion of the blank describe the content of this requirement. The items on which actuarial opinion is required are—

(A) Aggregate reserve for life policies and contracts (Exhibit 8);

(B) Aggregate reserve for accident and health policies (Exhibit 9);

(C) Net deferred and uncollected premiums; and

(D) Policy and Contract Claims—Liability End of Current Year (Exhibit 11, Part 1). The expanded actuarial opinion requirements with respect to life insurance company reserves has been designed with the intent to provide greater assurance that policyholders' benefits and shareholders' interests are being properly protected through adequate reserve practices. If the company does not employ an actuary on a staff or consulting basis, the department will use the verification made by the department's actuary or the consulting actuary to the department in lieu of that called for in the instructions. The necessary information and data to render an opinion must be provided by the company and the individual of the company responsible for this compilation must submit a statement to the department that the listings and summaries of policies in force and other information necessary to comply with these rules are complete and accurate to the best of his/her knowledge and belief. If the company intends to rely upon the verification by the department's actuary or consultant, it should so indicate in the space provided for certification.

(7) Qualified Opinions. A qualified opinion is usually an indication that some corrective action is indicated. The director will question any company, foreign or domestic, about which the opinion is received, whether that opinion is rendered by its own staff, its consultant or the department, as to its plans for correcting the indicated problem. It is recommended that in any situation in which an actuary finds it necessary to give a qualified opinion, s/he notify both the company and the department. If the department's actuary or consultant is unable to render an unqualified opinion, the department may require the company to obtain a separate opinion from another qualified actuary, which may be limited to the subject matter in question.

(8) Special Provisions for Certain Domestic Companies. The department is aware of the existence of some business in force on which there is no statutory basis for reserves. Lack of a statute, however, does not imply that no liability exists. The actuary valuing the business is not limited to statutory requirements for comparable business, but should use any appropriate assumptions and methods to establish the true liability. S/he, of course, must be prepared to justify to the director his/her choice of assumptions and methods.

(1) Actuarial Opinion Required.

(A) Every life insurance company doing business in this state annually shall submit the opinion of a qualified actuary as to whether the reserves and related actuarial items held in support of the company's policies and contracts are computed appropriately, are based on assumptions which satisfy contractual provisions, are consistent with prior reported amounts and comply with applicable laws of this state.

(B) The opinion shall be submitted with the annual statement reflecting the valuation of those reserve liabilities for each year ending on or after December 31, 1992.

(C) The opinion shall apply to all business in force including individual and group health insurance plans.

(D) The opinion shall be based on standards adopted from time-to-time by the Actuarial Standards Board.

(F) For the purposes of this section, qualified actuary means a member in good standing of the American Academy of Actuaries who meets the requirements set forth in those rules.

(G) Except in cases of fraud or willful misconduct, the qualified actuary shall not be liable for damages to any person (other than the insurance company and the director) for any act, error, omission, decision or conduct with respect to the actuary's opinion.

(I) A memorandum, in form and substance acceptable to the director, shall be prepared to support each actuarial opinion.

(J) If the insurance company fails to provide a supporting memorandum at the request of the director within thirty (30) days of that request, or the director determines that the supporting memorandum provided by the insurance company fails to meet the standards prescribed by this rule, or is otherwise unacceptable to the director, the director may engage a qualified actuary at the expense of the company to review the opinion and the basis for the opinion and prepare the supporting memorandum as is required by the director.

(K) Any memorandum in support of the opinion, and any other material provided by the company to the director in connection with the opinion shall be kept confidential by the director and shall not be made public and shall not be subject to subpoena, other than for the purpose of defending an action seeking damages from any person by reason of any action required by this rule; provided, that the memorandum or other material may otherwise be released by the director—a) with the written consent of the company or b) to the American Academy of Actuaries upon request stating that the memorandum or other material is required for the purpose of professional disciplinary proceedings and setting forth procedures satisfactory to the director for preserving the confidentiality of the memorandum or other material. Once any portion of the confidential memorandum is cited by the company in its marketing, or is cited before any governmental agency other than a state insurance department, or is released by the company to the news media, all portions of the confidential memorandum shall no longer be confidential.

(2) Matching Assets to Liabilities.

(A) Annually every life insurance company, except as may be exempted by or pursuant to this rule, also shall include in the opinion required by subsection (1)(A) of this rule, an opinion of the same qualified actuary as to whether the reserves and related actuarial items held in support of the policies and contracts specified by the director by this rule, when considered in light of the assets held by the company with respect to the reserves and related actuarial items, including, but not limited to, the investment earnings on the assets and the considerations anticipated to be received and retained under the policies and contracts, make adequate provision for the company's obligations under the policies and contracts including, but not limited to, the benefits under and expenses associated with the policies and contracts.

(B) The director, on a case-by-case basis, may provide for a transition period for establishing any higher reserves which the qualified actuary may deem necessary in order to render the opinion required by this section.

8. If there has been any change in the actuarial assumptions from those previously employed, that change should be described in the annual statement or in a paragraph of the statement of actuarial opinion, and the reference in subparagraph (5)(B)6.D. to be consistent should read as follows: “. . . with the exception of the change described on Page (.) of the annual statement (or in the preceding paragraph).” The adoption for new issues or new claims or other new liabilities of an actuarial assumption which differs from a corresponding assumption used for prior new issues or new claims or other new liabilities is not a change in actuarial assumptions within the meaning of this paragraph;

9. If the appointed actuary is unable to form an opinion, s/he shall refuse to issue a statement of actuarial opinion. If the appointed actuary’s opinion is adverse or qualified, s/he shall issue an adverse or qualified actuarial opinion explicitly stating the reason(s) for this opinion. This statement should follow the scope paragraph and precede the opinion paragraph; and

10. If the appointed actuary does not express an opinion as to the accuracy and completeness of the listings and summaries of policies in force, there should be attached to the opinion, the statement of a company officer or accounting firm who prepared the underlying data similar to the following: “I (name of officer), (title) of (name and address of company or accounting firm), affirm that the listings and summaries of policies and contracts in force as of December 31, (____), prepared for and submitted to (name of appointed actuary), were prepared under my direction and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, are substantially accurate and complete.”

(6) Statement of Actuarial Opinion Based On an Asset Adequacy Analysis.

(A) General Description. The statement of actuarial opinion submitted in accordance with this section shall consist of—

1. A paragraph identifying the appointed actuary and his/her qualifications (see paragraph (6)(B)1.);

2. A scope paragraph identifying the subjects on which an opinion is to be expressed and describing the scope of the appointed actuary's work, including a tabulation delineating the reserves and related actuarial items which have been analyzed for asset adequacy and the method of analysis, (see paragraph (6)(B)2.) and identifying the reserves and related actuarial items covered by the opinion which have not been so analyzed;

3. A reliance paragraph describing those areas, if any, where the appointed actuary has deferred to other experts in developing data, procedures or assumptions (for example, anticipated cash flows from currently owned assets, including variation in cash flows according to economic scenarios (see paragraph (6)(B)3.) supported by a statement of each expert in the form prescribed by subsection (6)(E);

4. An opinion paragraph expressing the appointed actuary's opinion with respect to the adequacy of the supporting assets to mature the liabilities (see paragraph (6)(B)6.); and

5. One (1) or more additional paragraphs will be needed in individual company cases as follows:

A. If the appointed actuary considers it necessary to state a qualification of his/her opinion;

B. If the appointed actuary must disclose the method of aggregation for reserves of different products or lines of business for asset adequacy analysis;

C. If the appointed actuary must disclose reliance upon any portion of the assets supporting the Interest Maintenance Reserve (IMR) and the Asset Valuation Reserve (AVR) or other mandatory or voluntary statement reserves for asset adequacy analysis;

D. If the appointed actuary must disclose an inconsistency in the method of analysis or basis of asset allocation used at the prior opinion date with that used for this opinion;

E. If the appointed actuary must disclose whether additional reserves of the prior opinion date are released as of this opinion date and the extent of the release; and

F. If the appointed actuary chooses to add a paragraph briefly describing the assumptions which form the basis for the actuarial opinion.

(B) Recommended Language. The following paragraphs are to be included in the statement of actuarial opinion in accordance with this section. Language is that which in typical circumstances should be included in a statement of actuarial opinion. The language may be modified as needed to meet the circumstances of a particular case, but the appointed actuary should use language which clearly expresses his/her professional judgment. However, in any event the opinion shall retain all pertinent aspects of the language provided in this section:

1. The opening paragraph should generally indicate the appointed actuary's relationship to the company and his/her qualifications to sign the opinion. For a company actuary, the opening paragraph of the actuarial opinion should read as follows: "I, (name), am (title) of (insurance company name) and a member of the American Academy of Actuaries. I was appointed by, or by the authority of, the board of directors of this insurer to render this opinion as stated in the letter to the director dated (insert date). I meet the Academy qualification standards for rendering the opinion and am familiar with the valuation requirements applicable to life and health insurance companies." For a consulting actuary, the opening paragraph should contain a sentence such as: "I, (name), a member of the American Academy of Actuaries, am associated with the firm of (name of consulting firm). I have been appointed by, or by the authority of, the board of directors of (name of company) to render this opinion as stated in the letter to the director dated (insert date), I meet the Academy qualification standards for rendering this opinion and am familiar with the valuation requirements, relating to life and health companies.";

2. The scope paragraph should include a statement such as the following: "I have examined the actuarial assumptions and actuarial methods used in determining reserves and related actuarial items listed here, as shown in the annual statement of the company, as prepared for filing with state regulatory officials, as of December 31, 19(____). Tabulated as follows are those reserves and related actuarial items which have been subjected to asset adequacy analysis":

(a) *Note: The additional actuarial reserves are the reserves established under paragraphs (3)(E)2. or 3.
 (b) *Note: The appointed actuary should indicate the method of analysis, determined in accordance with the standards for asset adequacy analysis referred to in subsection (3)(D) of this regulation, by means of symbols which should be defined in footnotes to the table.”

3. If the appointed actuary has relied on other experts to develop certain portions of the analysis, the reliance paragraph should include a statement such as the following:

A. "I have relied on (name), (title) for (for example, anticipated cash flows from currently owned assets, including variations in cash flows according to economic scenarios) and, as certified in the attached statement, . . ."; or

B. "I have relied on personnel as cited in the supporting memorandum for certain critical aspects of the analysis in reference to the accompanying statement." This statement of reliance on other experts should be accompanied by a statement by each of these experts of the form prescribed by subsection (6)(E);

4. If the appointed actuary has examined the underlying asset and liability records, the reliance paragraph should also include the following: "My examination included a review of the actuarial assumptions and actuarial methods and of the underlying basic asset and liability records and tests of the actuarial calculations as I considered necessary.";

5. If the appointed actuary has not examined the underlying records, but has relied upon listings and summaries of policies in force or asset records, prepared by the company or a third party, or a combination of these, the reliance paragraph should include a sentence such as: "I have relied upon listings and summaries (of policies and contracts, of asset records) prepared by (name and title of company officer certifying in-force records) as certified in the attached statement. In other respects my examination included a review of the actuarial assumptions and actuarial methods and tests of the actuarial calculations as I considered necessary." or "I have relied upon (name of accounting firm) for the substantial accuracy of the in-force records inventory and information concerning other liabilities, as certified in the attached statement. In other respects my examination included review of the actuarial assumptions and actuarial methods and tests of the actuarial calculations as I considered necessary." This section must be accompanied by a statement by each person relied upon of the form prescribed by subsection (6)(E); and

6. The opinion paragraph should include the following: "In my opinion the reserves and related actuarial values concerning the statement items identified here:

A. "Are computed in accordance with presently accepted actuarial standards consistently applied and are fairly stated, in accordance with sound actuarial principles;

B. "Are based on actuarial assumptions which produce reserves at least as great as those called for in any contract provision as to reserve basis and method, and are in accordance with all other contract provisions;

C. "Meet the requirements of the insurance law and regulation of the state of (state of domicile) and are at least as great as the minimum aggregate amounts required by the state in which this statement is filed;

D. "Are computed on the basis of assumptions consistent with those used in computing the corresponding items in the annual statement of the preceding year-end (with any exceptions noted here);

E. "Include provision for all actuarial reserves and related statement items which ought to be established. The reserves and related items, when considered in light of the assets held by the company with respect to these reserves and related actuarial items including, but not limited to, the investment earnings on these assets, and the considerations anticipated to be received and retained under the policies and contracts, make adequate provision, according to presently accepted actuarial standards of practice, for the anticipated cash flows required by the contractual obligations and related expenses of the company. The actuarial methods, considerations and analyses used in forming my opinion conform to the appropriate Standards of Practice as promulgated by the Actuarial Standards Board, which standards form the basis of this statement of opinion. This opinion is updated annually as required by statute. To the best of my knowledge, there have been no material changes from the applicable date of the annual statement to the date of the rendering of this opinion which should be considered in reviewing this opinion" or "The following material change(s) which occurred between the date of the statement for which this opinion is applicable and the date of this opinion should be considered in reviewing this opinion: (Describe the change(s).) Note: Choose one of the preceding two paragraphs, whichever is applicable. The impact of unanticipated events subsequent to the date of this opinion is beyond the scope of this opinion. The analysis of asset adequacy portion of this opinion should be viewed recognizing that the company's future experience may not follow all the assumptions used in the analysis."

(C) Assumptions for New Issues. The adoption for new issues or new claims or other new liabilities of an actuarial assumption which differs from a corresponding assumption used for prior new issues or new claims or other new liabilities is not a change in actuarial assumptions within the meaning of this section.

(D) Adverse Opinions. If the appointed actuary is unable to form an opinion, then s/he shall refuse to issue a statement of actuarial opinion. If the appointed actuary's opinion is adverse or qualified, then s/he shall issue an adverse or qualified actuarial opinion explicitly stating the reason(s) for that opinion. This statement should follow the scope paragraph and precede the opinion paragraph.

(E) Reliance on Data Furnished by Other Persons. If the appointed actuary does not express an opinion as to the accuracy and completeness of the listings and summaries of policies in force or asset oriented information, or both, there shall be attached to the opinion the statement of a company officer or accounting firm who prepared the underlying data similar to the following: "I (name of officer), (title), of (name of company or accounting firm), affirm that the listings and summaries of policies and contracts in force as of December 31, (____), and other liabilities prepared for and submitted to (name of appointed actuary) were prepared under my direction and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, are substantially accurate and complete."

(7) Description of Actuarial Memorandum Including an Asset Adequacy Analysis.

(A) General.

1. In accordance with 20 CSR 200-1.115 and sections 376.370 and 376.380, RSMo, the appointed actuary shall prepare a memorandum to the company describing the analysis done in support of his/her opinion regarding the reserves under a section (6) opinion. The memorandum shall be made available for examination by the director upon his/her request but shall be returned to the company after the examination and shall not be considered a record of the insurance department or subject to automatic filing with the director.

2. In preparing the memorandum, the appointed actuary may rely on, and include as a part of his/her own memorandum, memoranda prepared and signed by other actuaries who are qualified within the meaning of subsection (3)(B) of this rule, with respect to the areas covered in those memoranda, and so state in the memoranda.

3. If the director requests a memorandum and no memorandum exists or if the director finds that the analysis described in the memorandum fails to meet the standards of the Actuarial Standards Board or the standards and requirements of this rule, the director may designate a qualified actuary to review the opinion and prepare the supporting memorandum as is required for review. The reasonable and necessary expense of the independent review shall be paid by the company but shall be directed and controlled by the director.

4. The reviewing actuary shall have the same status as an examiner for purposes of obtaining data from the company and the work papers and documentation of the reviewing actuary shall be retained by the director; provided, however, that any information provided by the company to the reviewing actuary and included in the work papers shall be considered as material provided by the company to the director and shall be kept confidential to the same extent as is prescribed by law with respect to other material provided by the company to the director pursuant to the statute governing this rule. The reviewing actuary shall not be an employee of a consulting firm involved with the preparation of any prior memorandum or opinion for the insurer pursuant to this rule for any one (1) of the current year or the preceding three (3) years.

(B) Details of the Memorandum Section Documenting Asset Adequacy Analysis (section (6)). When an actuarial opinion under section (6) is provided, the memorandum shall demonstrate that the analysis has been done in accordance with the standards for asset adequacy referred to in subsection (3)(D) of this rule and any additional standards under this rule. It shall specify—

1. For reserves—

A. Product descriptions including market description, underwriting and other aspects of a risk profile and the specific risks the appointed actuary deems significant;

B. Source of liability in force;

C. Reserve method and basis;

D. Investment reserves; and

E. Reinsurance arrangements;

2. For assets—

A. Portfolio descriptions, including a risk profile disclosing the quality, distribution and types of assets;

B. Investment and disinvestment assumptions;

C. Source of asset data; and

D. Asset valuation bases;

3. Analysis basis—

A. Methodology;

B. Rationale for inclusion/exclusion of different blocks of business and how pertinent risks were analyzed;

C. Rationale for degree of rigor in analyzing different blocks of business;

D. Criteria for determining asset adequacy; and

E. Effect of federal income taxes, reinsurance and other relevant factors;

4. Summary of results; and

5. Conclusion(s).

(C) Conformity to Standards of Practice. The memorandum shall include a statement: "Actuarial methods, considerations and analyses used in the preparation of this memorandum conform to the appropriate Standards of Practice as promulgated by the Actuarial Standards Board, which standards form the basis for this memorandum."

(8) Additional Considerations for Analysis.

(A) Aggregation. For the asset adequacy analysis for the statement of actuarial opinion provided in accordance with section (6) of this rule, reserves and assets may be aggregated by either of the following methods:

1. Aggregate the reserves and related actuarial items, and the supporting assets, for different products or lines of business, before analyzing the adequacy of the combined assets to mature the combined liabilities. The appointed actuary must be satisfied that the assets held in support of the reserves and related actuarial items so aggregated are managed in such a manner that the cash flows from the aggregated assets are available to help mature the liabilities from the blocks of business that have been aggregated; or

2. Aggregate the results of asset adequacy analysis of one (1) or more products or lines of business, the reserves for which prove through analysis to be redundant, with the results of one (1) or more products or lines of business, the reserves for which prove through analysis to be deficient. The appointed actuary must be satisfied that the asset adequacy results for the various products or lines of business for which the results are so aggregated—

A. Are developed using consistent economic scenarios; or

B. Are subject to mutually independent risks, that is, the likelihood of events impacting the adequacy of the assets supporting the redundant reserves is completely unrelated to the likelihood of events impacting the adequacy of the assets supporting the deficient reserves. In the event of any aggregation, the actuary must disclose in his/her opinion that reserves were aggregated on the basis of the method described in paragraph (8)(A)1., or subparagraphs (8)(A)2.A. or B., whichever is applicable, and describe the aggregation in the supporting memorandum.

(B) Selection of Assets for Analysis. The appointed actuary shall analyze only those assets held in support of the reserves which are the subject for specific analysis, called specified reserves. A particular asset or portion of an asset supporting a group of specified reserves cannot support any other group of specified reserves. An asset may be allocated over several groups of specified reserves. The annual statement value of the assets held in support of the reserves shall not exceed the annual statement value of the specified reserves, except as provided in subsection (8)(C). If the method of asset allocation is not consistent from year-to-year, the extent of its inconsistency should be described in the supporting memorandum.

(C) Use of Assets Supporting the Interest Maintenance Reserve and the Asset Valuation Reserve:

1. An appropriate allocation of assets in the amount of the IMR, whether positive or negative, must be used in any asset adequacy analysis. Analysis of risks regarding asset default may include an appropriate allocation of assets supporting the AVR; these AVR assets may not be applied for any other risks with respect to reserve adequacy. Analysis of these and other risks may include assets supporting other mandatory or voluntary reserves available to the extent not used for risk analysis and reserve support.

2. The amount of the assets used for the AVR must be disclosed in the Table of Reserves and Liabilities of the opinion and in the memorandum. The method used for selecting particular assets or allocated portions of assets must be disclosed in the memorandum.

(D) Required Interest Scenarios. For the purpose of performing the asset adequacy analysis required by this rule, the qualified actuary is expected to follow standards adopted by the Actuarial Standards Board; nevertheless, the appointed actuary must consider in the analysis the effect of at least the following interest rate scenarios:

1. Level with no deviation;
2. Uniformly increasing over ten (10) years at one-half percent (.5%) per year and then level;
3. Uniformly increasing at one percent (1%) per year over five (5) years and then uniformly decreasing at one percent (1%) per year to the original level at the end of ten (10) years and then level;
4. An immediate increase of three percent (3%) and then level;
5. Uniformly decreasing over ten (10) years at one-half percent (.5%) per year and then level;
6. Uniformly decreasing at one percent (1%) per year over five (5) years and then uniformly increasing at one percent (1%) per year to the original level at the end of ten (10) years and then level; and
7. An immediate decrease of three percent (3%) and then level. For these and other scenarios which may be used, projected interest rates for a five (5)-year Treasury Note need not be reduced beyond the point where the five (5)-year Treasury Note yield would be at fifty percent (50%) of its initial level. The beginning interest rates may be based on interest rates for new investments as of the valuation date similar to recent investments allocated to support the product being tested or be based on an outside index, such as Treasury yields, of assets of the appropriate length on a date close to the valuation date. Whatever method is used to determine the beginning yield curve and associated interest rates should be specifically defined. The beginning yield curve and associated interest rates should be consistent for all interest rate scenarios.

(E) Documentation. The appointed actuary shall retain on file, for at least seven (7) years, sufficient documentation so that it will be possible to determine the procedures followed, the analyses performed, the bases for assumptions and the results obtained.

(1) Life Insurance.

(A) Group Insurance.

1. Yearly renewable term life insurance (including waiver of premium and accidental death benefits).

A. Gross pro rata unearned premium method.

B. The Commissioners 1960 Standards Group Mortality Table with interest as specified in section 376.380, RSMo.

C. Any other valuation basis producing higher reserves.

2. Inasmuch as the Federal Employees Group Life Insurance Act of 1954, 5 U.S.C.A. Section 8701, provides that appointive or elective officers or employees of the United States government, at a time and under conditions of eligibility as the Civil Service Commission by regulation may prescribe, shall be eligible to be insured for specified amounts of group life insurance and specified amounts of group accidental death and dismemberment insurance, as provided in the Act; and since as the Act requires the maintenance of a special contingency reserve upon group insurance issued or reinsured in accordance with its provisions, the provisions of this rule shall not be applicable to any group insurance issued or reinsured by a life insurance company in accordance with the provision of the Act.

3. Inasmuch as the Servicemen's Group Life Insurance Act of 1965, 38 U.S.C.A. section 765, provides that members of the uniformed services on active duty shall be eligible to be insured for specified amounts of group life insurance, as provided in the Act; and inasmuch as the Act requires that maintenance of a special contingency reserve upon group insurance issued or reinsured in accordance with its provisions, the provisions of this rule shall not be applicable to any group insurance issued or reinsured by any life insurance company in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

(B) Credit Life Insurance. All credit life insurance shall be valued on the 1958 Commissioners Standards Ordinary Mortality Table with interest assumption of three and one-half percent (3 1/2%) or any other valuation basis producing higher reserves.

(C) Other Standards.

1. Extra or additional reserves, calculated according to the previously mentioned standards, will be required in all cases to cover the nondeduction of deferred fractional premiums or return of premiums, in the event of death. No extra reserve is required when the basic policy reserve makes a provision for this, for example, when continuous functions are used.

2. Other valuation standards may be used so long as the reserves computed on those standards for each of the previously mentioned categories are greater in the aggregate than the reserves computed according to minimum standards.

3. Reserves for annuity and pure endowment contracts, for disability and accidental death benefits in all policies and contracts, for life insurance policies providing for a varying amount of insurance or requiring the payment of varying premiums, and for all other benefits, except life insurance and endowment benefits in life insurance policies, shall be calculated by a method consistent with the principles of the commissioner's reserve valuation method, as defined in section 376.380.2(b), RSMo. In the calculation of reserves for life policies containing coupon or annual pure endowment benefits, each benefit shall be treated as a pure endowment maturing for its cash value on the date it becomes due. This coupon or annual pure endowment benefit shall be considered to be a part of the guaranteed benefits provided for by the policies.

(2) Accident and Health Insurance.

(A) Active Life Reserves—Individual Policies.

1. General. Active life reserves are required for all in-force policies and are in addition to any reserves required in connection with claims. For policy types A, B and C described in paragraph (2)(A)2., the minimum reserve shall be determined as specified. It should be emphasized, however, that these are minimum standards and higher, adequate reserves shall be established by the company in any case where experience indicates that the minimum standards do not place a sound value on the liabilities under the policy. For the policy described in subparagraph (2)(A)2.D., type D, the minimum reserve shall be the gross pro rata unearned premium.

2. Types of individual accident and health insurance policies.

A. Policies which are noncancellable or noncancellable and guaranteed renewable for life or to a specified age, such as sixty (60) or sixty-five (65).

B. Policies which are guaranteed renewable for life or to a specified age, such as sixty (60) or sixty-five (65), but under which the company reserves the right to change the scale of premiums.

C. Policies in which the company has reserved the right to cancel or refuse renewal for one (1) or more reasons, but has agreed, either implicitly or explicitly, that prior to a specified time or age it will not cancel or decline renewal solely because of deterioration of health after issue; however, policies shall not be considered of this type if the company has reserved the right to refuse renewal provided the right is to be exercised at the same time for all policies in the same category, unless premiums are based on the level premium principle.

D. All other individual policies except credit accident and health insurance.

3. Notes.

A. The previously mentioned does not classify franchise as a type of policy. These policies are frequently written under an agreement limiting the company's right to cancel or refuse renewal. Usually the right is reserved to refuse renewal of all policies in the group or other categories, such as those ceasing to be members of the association, and this would place those policies in type D in accordance with the last clause under subparagraph (2)(A)2.C. However, if premiums are based on the level premium principle or if the renewal privilege granted to the individual insured meets the requirements for type A, B or C, the franchise policy shall be so classified for reserve purposes.

B. A policy may have guarantees qualifying it as type A, B or C until a specified age or duration after which the guarantees, or lack of guarantees, may qualify it as type A, B, C or D. In that case, the policy in each period shall be considered for reserve purposes according to the type to which it then belongs.

C. Where all of the benefits of a policy as provided by rider or otherwise are not of the same type (A,B,C or D), each benefit shall be considered for reserve purposes according to the type to which it belongs.

4. Reserve standards for policies of type A, B or C.

A. Interest. The maximum interest rate for reserves shall be the amount specified in section 376.380, RSMo.

B. Mortality.

(I) 1941 Commissioners Standard Ordinary Table.

(II) 1958 Commissioners Standard Ordinary Table.

(III) 1941 Standard Industrial Mortality Table.

(IV) Commissioners 1961 Standard Industrial Mortality Table.

(V) Other table as may be approved by the director.

C. Morbidity or other contingency.

(I) Total disability due to accident or sickness. The minimum standard shall be the 1964 Commissioners Disability Table.

(II) Hospital expense benefits. The minimum standard shall be the 1956 Inter-company Hospital Table.

(III) Surgical expense benefits. The minimum standard shall be the 1956 Inter-company Surgical Table.

(IV) Accidental death benefits. The minimum standard shall be the 1959 Accidental Death Benefits Table.

(V) All other benefits. The company shall adopt standards to produce reserves which place a sound value on the liabilities under the benefit.

D. Negative reserves. Negative reserves on any benefit may be offset against positive reserves for other benefits in the same policy, but the mean reserve on any policy shall never be taken as less than one-half (1/2) the valuation net premium.

E. Preliminary term. For those policies which were type A, B or C when originally issued, the minimum reserve shall be on the basis of a two (2)-year preliminary term. For those policies which were of type D when originally issued, but which were subsequently changed by the company to a type A, B or C.

(I) If the change was made within two (2) years after the date of issue, the minimum reserve shall be on the basis of a two (2)-year preliminary term, measured from the date of issue.

(II) If the change was made two (2) years or more after the date of issue, the minimum reserve shall be on the net level premium basis, measured from the policy anniversary coincident with or next following the date of change.

F. Reserve method. Mean reserves diminished by appropriate credit for valuation net deferred premiums; or midterminal reserves plus gross or net pro rata unearned premium reserves. In no event, however, may the aggregate reserve for all policies be less than the gross pro rata unearned premium under those policies.

G. Alternative valuation procedures and assumptions. Provided the reserve on all policies to which the method or basis is applied is not less in the aggregate than the amount determined according to the applicable standard previously specified, the company may use any reasonable assumptions as to the interest rate, mortality rates or the rates of morbidity or other contingency and may introduce an assumption as to the voluntary termination of policies. Also, subject to the preceding conditions, the company may employ methods other than the methods stated previously in determining a sound value of its liabilities under those policies including, but not limited to, the following:

(I) Optional use of either the level premium, the one (1)-year preliminary term or the two (2)-year preliminary term method;

(II) Prospective valuation on the basis of actual gross premiums with reasonable allowance for future expenses;

(III) The use of approximations, such as those involving age groupings, groupings of several years of issue or average amounts in indemnity;

(IV) The computation of the reserve for one (1) policy benefit as a percentage of, or by other relation to, the aggregate policy reserves, exclusive of the benefit(s) so valued; or

(V) The use of a composite annual claim cost for all or any combination of the benefits included in the policies valued. For statement purposes the net reserve liability may be shown as the excess of the mean reserve over the amount of net unpaid and deferred premiums, or regardless of the underlying method of calculation, it may be divided between the gross pro rata unearned premium reserve and a balancing item for the additional reserve.

(B) Active Life Reserves. Group policies except credit accident and health insurance.

1. This applies to group accident and health insurance as defined in section 376.405, RSMo.

2. The minimum reserve for active lives on all group accident and health policies shall be the pro rata gross unearned premium.

3. If a group policy contains a conversion option for terminated employees and the employees, under this provision, may receive an individual policy without evidence of insurability, the company shall establish a reserve for the morbidity cost expected in excess of these costs assumed by the premium, if any, which is then payable by or on behalf of the terminated employee. The group account shall be charged with an amount (conversion charge) to establish this reserve and after that the reserve shall be maintained as an individual policy active life reserve.

(C) Credit Accident and Health Insurance. All credit accident and health insurance (both individual and group) shall be established and maintained on the basis of not less than the unearned gross premium computed on the basis of the sum of digits formula, commonly known as the Rule of 78.

(D) Claim Reserves. Present value of amounts not yet due on claims (also called disabled life reserves in the case of insurance providing loss-of-time benefits for disability due to accident or sickness).

1. General. Reserves are required for claims on all health insurance policies, group and individual of type A, B, C or D, providing benefits for continuing loss, such as loss-of-time or hospitalization.

2. Claim reserve standards for total disability due to accident or sickness.

A. Interest. The maximum interest rate for reserves shall be three and one-half percent (3 1/2%) compounded annually.

B. Morbidity. The reserve shall be established in accordance with the 1954 Commissioners Disability Table, except that for unreported claims and resisted claims and, at the option of the company, the claims with a duration of disablement of less than two (2) years, reserves may be based on the individual company's experience or other assumptions designed to place a sound value on the liabilities. Reserves based on those experiences or assumptions shall be verified by the development of each year's claims over a period of years.

C. For policies with an elimination period, the duration of the disablement shall be considered as dating from the time that benefits would have begun to accrue had there been no elimination period.

D. A new disability connected with a previous disability which had a duration of at least one (1) year and terminated within six (6) months of the new disability shall be considered a continuation of the previous disability.

3. Reserve standards for all other claim reserves.

A. Interest. The maximum interest rate for reserves shall be three and one-half percent (3 1/2%) compounded annually.

B. Morbidity and other contingency. The reserve shall be based on the individual company's experience or other assumptions designed to place a sound value on the liabilities. Results shall be verified by the development of each year's claims over a period of years.

4. Valuation procedures. The company may employ suitable approximations and estimates including, but not limited to, groupings and averages, in computing claim reserves.

(E) Policies Issued Prior to Operative Date of This Rule. Any company may elect to establish and maintain reserves as required in this rule for policies issued prior to the operative date of this rule. In making this election, a company may elect to revalue all previous issues or at its option may revalue only certain blocks of issues as determined by issue date or plan of coverage. Claim reserves may be revalued independent of active life reserves. Any election shall be made by filing written notice with the director of insurance, stating the effective date of election and identifying the reserves or issues of policies to be revalued. If no election is made, reserve standards in effect in the company prior to the operative date of this rule shall be maintained.

(3) The new operative date with respect to this rule, means the date on or before January 1, 1989 when the company files a written notice with the director of its election to comply with the provisions of section 376.380(3), RSMo or if no election is filed, the date is January 1, 1989.

20 CSR 200-1.150 General Standards Applicable to Audited Financial Reports

PURPOSE: This rule provides interpretations of various terms and provisions used in sections 375.1025–375.1062, RSMo which govern how the financial reports of insurers are to be audited.

Editor's Note: The secretary of state has determined that the publication of this rule in its entirety would be unduly cumbersome or expensive. The entire text of the material referenced in section (2) of this rule has been filed with the secretary of state. This material may be found at the Office of the Secretary of State or at the headquarters of the agency and is available to any interested person at a cost established by state law.

(1) Definitions.

(A) As used in section 375.1037.4(3), RSMo, the phrase “has demonstrated a pattern or practice of failing to detect or disclose material information” shall be deemed to include, but not limited to, any accountant or accounting firm that has failed to detect or disclose an insolvency which is later determined to have existed on the “as of” date of a financial report which the accountant of firm has filed under sections 375.1025–375.1062, RSMo.

(B) As used in section 375.1032.3(3), RSMo, the term “insignificant” shall mean amounts which, when combined, will not exceed five percent (5%) of the insurer’s total assets.

(C) As used in section 375.1045.1., RSMo, the term “material” as it relates to a misstatement of an insurer’s financial condition shall mean any misstatement of the insurer’s financial condition—

1. By an amount greater than or equal to twenty percent ($\geq 20\%$) of the insurer’s capital and surplus; or

2. By any amount where the independent certified public accountant determines the misstatement to be material in accordance with SAS No. 47, Audit Risk and Materiality in Conducting an Audit (AU Section 312 of the Professional Standards of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.)

(D) As used in section 375.1032.2(6)(c), RSMo, the term “significant” shall mean any intercompany transaction or balance involving an amount greater than or equal to five percent ($\geq 5\%$) of the insurer’s capital and surplus.

(E) As provided in section 375.1037.3., RSMo, no partner or other person responsible for rendering a report under sections 375.1025–375.1062, RSMo, may act in that capacity for more than seven (7) consecutive years. For purposes of determining whether a person is competent under this section, a “year” shall be deemed to be that period of time beginning on January 1 and ending on December 31 of a given calendar year, commencing January 1, 1992.

(2) Pursuant to section 375.1047, RSMo, each insurer shall furnish the director with a written report prepared by the accountant describing the insurer’s internal control structure noted by the accountant during the audit. SAS No. 60, Communication of Internal Control Structure Matters Noted in an Audit (AU Section 325 of the Professional Standards of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants) requires an accountant to communicate significant deficiencies (known as “reportable conditions”) noted during a financial statement audit to the appropriate parties within an entity. No report under section 375.1047, RSMo, needs to be issued if the accountant does not identify significant deficiencies. If significant deficiencies are noted, the written report shall be filed annually by the insurer with the director within sixty (60) days after the filing of the annual audited financial statements. The insurer shall provide a description of remedial actions taken or proposed to correct significant deficiencies, if those actions are not described in the accountant’s report.

(3) An insurer may make written application to the director for approval to file audited consolidated or combined financial statements in lieu of separate annual audited financial statements if the insurer is part of a group of insurance companies which utilizes a pooling or one hundred percent (100%) reinsurance agreement that affects the solvency and integrity of the insurer’s reserves and such insurer cedes all of its direct and assumed business to the pool. In such cases, if approved in writing by the director, a columnar consolidating or combining worksheet shall be filed with the report, as follows:

(A) Amounts shown on the consolidated or combined Audited Financial Report shall be shown on the worksheet;

(B) Amounts for each insurer subject to this section shall be stated separately;

(C) Noninsurance operations may be shown on the worksheet on a combined or individual basis;

(D) Explanations of consolidating and eliminating entries shall be included; and

(E) A reconciliation shall be included of any differences between the amounts shown in the individual insurer columns of the worksheet and comparable amounts shown on the Annual Statements of the insurers.
