Palmyra Missouri March 19th 1864

Dear Mr. Blair

Dear Sir

Mr. William Smith, an old friend of mine at this county, desires me to state that his brother Robert Smith of Smith, was a young man who came at his house and joined the rebel army organized in this section at the dissemination of the war ^{so} since with the war made prisoners at the invasion of the State. Finding there no food and having grown tired of ^{it}, they started for their father's house in this section near Harrison County at the front mountains in August last (1863) where they considered themselves safe and were permitted to take the oath of allegiance and return to their home to the Government of the United States. They present that you received them kindly and gave them assurance of your assistance in their request. In a few days they were sent to Camp Brown in the State prisoners, where they are to the City of St Louis and confined in the same strait prison. Here the prisoners waited ~~and~~ waited, when ever the authorities see them back and they are released. Seeing the state of their minds and seeing their sick and dying and seeing their misery, they are at last still anxious to return to their allotments and desire to be so done. Will you please advise us and if you can please us with the necessary regulations to obtain for them and favor them with the necessary and reasonable Government? An early answer will be a great accommodation.

Yours truly
James G. Thompson

Wm. H. St.

Head Quarters, Department of the Missouri,

OFFICE OF PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL,

St. Louis, Mo., Septemb. 28th 1864

Col. I have received your Special Order withdrawing certain privileges from the prisoners in the Officers Quarters at Fort St. Louis.

So far as Carr and Weaver are concerned I have to request that this order be modified allowing them the same privileges as heretofore, as they are held as hostages only.

You will direct the Commanding Officer at Fort St. Louis, to furnish Capt. Meyer with a list of all occupants of the Officers Quarters, so that he can issue his permits accordingly.

The restriction might be removed by requiring all who use these quarters to pledge their words not to offer to escape in any way, or to violate the rules of the prison, and that they will give prompt information of any plans they may hear of, proposed by others, to escape.

If they refuse to do this, they will be removed to other rooms.

Very Respectfully
Your obt. servt.
