Dear Sir

I received your letter respecting certain clames due for services rendered in the Mormon difficulty. but not in time to see you in Fayette the clame of James Williams stands on the payroll unpaid which is $11.07 also Hughs Parsons unpaid . . . 11.07 but the name of James L Jipson is not to be found on the original payroll in Capt Childs company . I exspect to be in the City of Jefferson about the last of the month at which time I will pay off this above clames and any others that you may have on hand. the out standing clames are often presented to me for payment and cannot leave home untill about that time least I should disappoint many persons my respects to yourself and family yours truly.

M. Horner
