

Head Quarters of the Militia
Adjutant General's Office
August 30th 1838.

Sir

Indications of Indian disturbances
on our immediate frontier and the recent Civil disturbances in the Counties of Caldwell Davis and Carroll, render it necessary as a precautionary measure that an effective force of the Militia be held in readiness to meet either Contingency. The Command in Chief therefore orders, that you cause to be raised immediately within the limits of your Division to be held in readiness subject to further orders, four hundred mounted men armed and equipped as Infantry or Riflemen, and formed into Companies according to Law under officers already in Commission.

The Command in Chief suggests the propriety <sup>of</sup> causing the above order to be carried into effect, in a manner calculated to produce as little excitement as possible and report your proceedings to him through the Adjutant General.

By order of the Command in Chief Genl. David R. Hitchcock      M. H. S. Lt. Col.
3rd Division M.M.

Head Quarters of the Militia
Adjutant General's Office,
August 30th 1836.

Sir,

Indications of Indian disturbances on our immediate frontier, and the recent Civil disturbances in the Counties of Caldwell, Davie and Carroll, render it necessary as a precautionary measure, that an effective force of the Militia be raised and in readiness to meet either Contingency.

The Commandant in Chief therefore orders that you cause to be raised, within the limits of your Division three hundred mounted men armed and equipped as Infantry or Riflemen and formed into Companies according to law
under officers already in Commission.

The Commandant in Chief suggests the propriety of your causing the above order to be carried into effect in a manner calculated to produce as little disturbance as possible. And report your proceedings to him through the Adjutant General.

By order of the Commandant in Chief.
Genl Lewis, Colonel,
6th Division
M.M.

B.M. Fille Adj't Genl.

Head Quarters of the Militia,
Adjutant General's Office
City of Jefferson August 30th 1838

Sir,

Indications of Indian disturbances
on our immediate frontier, and the recent
disturbances in the Counties of Caldwell, Davie
and Carroll, render it necessary as a precautionary measure that an effective force of the Militia should be held in readiness to meet either contingency.

The Commander in Chief therefore — orders that you cause to be immediately raised within the limits of your Division to be held in readiness subject to further orders, five hundred mounted men armed and equipped as Infantry or Riflemen, formed into — companies according to law, under officers already in Commission. The Commander in Chief suggests the propriety of your causing the above order to be carried into effect, in a manner calculated to produce as little disturbance as possible, and report your proceedings to him through the Adjutant General. By order of the Commander in Chief
Maj<sup>r</sup> Genl. Wm. Clark. P. M. Hill, Adj<sup>t</sup> Genl.
1st Division Wm.

Head Quarters of the Militia
Adjutant General's Office
August 30th 1838

Sir

Indications of Indian disturbances
on our immediate frontier, and the recent
civil disturbances in the Counties of Caldwell.

Have rendered it necessary as a precautionary measure that an effective Military force should be held in readiness to meet either contingency.

The Commander in Chief therefore orders that you cause to be raised immediately within the limits of your Division to be held in readiness subject to further orders four hundred mounted men armed and equipped as Infantry or Riflemen, and formed into Companies, according to law, under officers already in Commission.

The Commander in Chief suggests the propriety of your causing the above order to be carried into effect in a manner calculated to produce as little excitement as possible and report your proceedings to him through the Adjutant General.

By order of the Commander in Chief Col. Henry W. Brown. B. M. 1838. Adj. Genl.
3rd Division. W. M.

Head Quarters of the Militia
Adjutant General's Office,
(August 31st 1838)

Sir.

Indications of Indian disturbances on our immediate frontiers and the recent civil disturbances in Counties of Caldwell Surber and Carroll render it necessary as a precautionary measure that an effective force of the Militia be held in readiness to meet either contingency

The Commandant in Chief therefore orders that you cause to be raised immediately within the limits of your Division to be held in readiness subject to further orders four hundred Moulded Men, Armed and equipped as Infantry or Riflemen, and
formed into Companies according to law
under officers already in Commission

The Commandant in Chief suggests the propriety of your causing the above order to be carried into effect in a manner calculated to produce as little excitement as possible and report your proceedings to him through the Adjutant General.

By order of the Commandant in Chief,
Genl. James Douglas.

Chas. White Adj. Genl.

1st Division

W.M.

Headquarters of the Militia,
Adjutant General's Office
August 30th 1838

Sir,

Indications of Indian disturbances on our immediate frontier and the recent civil disturbances in the Counties of Caldwell, Davie and Warrick render it necessary, as a precautionary measure that an effective force of the Militia should be held in readiness to meet either the emergency

The Commandant in Chief therefore orders, that you cause to be raised immediately within the limits of your Division, three hundred mounted men armed and equipped as Infantry or Riflemen and formed into companies according to the order under officers already in commission.

The Commandant in Chief suggests the propriety of your causing the above order to be carried into effect in a manner calculated to produce as little excitement as possible. And report your proceedings to him through the Adjutant General.

By order of the Commandant in Chief
Genl. Tho<sup>s</sup> S. Grant. P.M. file, Sept. 1st 1838.
13th Division.
M.M.

Head Quarters of the 11th
Adjutant General's Office.
August 30 1838.

Sir.

Indications of Indian disturbances on the immediate frontier, and the recent Civil disturbances in the Counties of Caldwell, Davie
and Carroll render it necessary as a precautionary
measure that an effective force of the Militia should be held in readiness to meet either contingency.

The commanding officer therefore orders.

29 That you cause to be raised immediately within the limits of your Division a be held in readiness for further orders four hundred mounted men armed and equipped as Infantry or Riflemen, and formed into companies according to law under officers already in Commission.

It is the duty of the commanding officer to report the propriety of having of your causing the above order to be carried into effect in a manner — calculated to produce as little excitement as is possible, and report your proceedings to him through the Adjutant General.

Genl D Willcock

15th Division

C.M.M.

Wm Hise Adj. Genl.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged, yellowed paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.]

[Handwritten signature or name, possibly "C. J. ..."]

2